

FARC requests removal from terrorist lists

On January 28 alias Iván Márquez requested the European Parliament's Committee on Foreign Affairs that the insurgent group to be removed from the terrorist list. According to the FARC leader, this would eliminate an “obstacle” in the peace efforts in Colombia^[1]. The US Special Envoy to the talks clarified that the FARC’s removal from the US terrorist organizations list depends upon their disarmament and cessation of criminal activity^[2].

[1]

[2]